Certificate of Attendance

This is to certify that

from Pompeu Fabra University (Barcelona, Spain) has participated in a staff mobility programme at the University of Pretoria (Pretoria, South Africa) within the framework of the Erasmus+ programme for teaching and training from 28 September to 2 October 2026.

During this period, he took part in the following activities:

- Technical meetings and research discussions with academic staff of the Department of Informatics, among them Prof. Olawande Daramola, Dr. Deborah Oluwadele, and Prof. Timothy Adeliyi, on artificial intelligence, machine learning, and data-driven systems engineering, with methodological exchange on model design and evaluation.
- Delivery of a seminar entitled "When the ground truth requires surgery: machine learning for brain pressure monitoring", presenting research on non-invasive intracranial pressure monitoring using photonics and machine learning, carried out by Pompeu Fabra University, the Institute of Photonic Sciences, and Vall d'Hebron Hospital in Barcelona.
- Individual research supervision sessions with doctoral candidates of the Department of Informatics, on explainable artificial intelligence and causal machine learning for clinical decision support, covering causal inference under confounding, treatment-effect estimation, and the evaluation of explainable models.
- Working sessions to define joint research directions, co-authored publications, and follow-up collaboration between the two institutions.
- Participation as a member of the judging panel at the University of Pretoria's International Students' Day 2026 (2 October 2026, Amphitheatre, Hatfield Campus).
